RMKS/1. This NAVADMIN provides details on the Graduate Education Voucher (GEV) program and guidance for FY-19 program application. Eligibility, obligated service requirements, subspecialty utilization tour, and authorized program benefits are prescribed in reference (a). Where information differs between this NAVADMIN and reference (a), this NAVADMIN takes precedence.

2. GEV funding is authorized for off-duty study in master degree programs which meet the requirements of at least one approved Navy subspecialty code as verified by Naval Postgraduate School. For FY-19, 30 GEV quotas for select unrestricted line officers are planned, subject to funding availability, and all quotas must be allocated by 28 June 2019.
   a. Quotas are apportioned as follows:
      - Aviation officers - 10
      - Submarine officers - 8
      - Surface warfare officers - 9
      - SPECWAR/EOD officers - 3
   b. FY-19 quotas by area of study, subspecialty for area of study, and warfare area are:
      - Computer Science (6203P/G)
        - AV 0, SUB 0, SURFACE 1, SPECWAR/EOD 0
      - Engineering (5XXXP/G)
        - AV 2, SUB 2, SURFACE 2, SPECWAR/EOD 0
      - Financial Management (3105P/G)
        - AV 5, SUB 3, SURFACE 4, SPECWAR/EOD 2
      - History (4302P/G)
        - AV 1, SUB 0, SURFACE 0, SPECWAR/EOD 0
      - Mathematics (4100P/G)
        - AV 0, SUB 1, SURFACE 0, SPECWAR/EOD 0
      - Regional/National Security Studies (2XXXF/G)
        - AV 2, SUB 2, SURFACE 2, SPECWAR/EOD 1

3. Travel funding considerations will only be made for distance learning programs that have 20 percent or less mandated university main campus residency requirements. International travel will not be funded.
4. GEV participants must submit GEV authorization documents to the school prior to the term start date to receive funding for the term.

5. The surface warfare officer community will only accept FY-19 GEV applications from their talent management selectees. Application and program specifics may be found in reference (a) and at www.navycollege.navy.mil/resources/gev.htm.
